(iii.) Travelling expenses.—Non-commissioned officers and men when joining for annual training or other military duty and when returning at its conclusion will receive travelling expenses to cover the cost of their journey by rail (third class), under the conditions of paras. 571-584, Regulations for Special Reserve. A.O. 184 1914 continued.

(iv.) Bounty.—The following bounty will be paid annually in lieu of the training and non-training bounties laid down in the Special Reserve Regulations :—

4l. training bounty and three non-training bounties of 2l. each. Recruits' bounty will not be issuable.

(v.) Pensions.—Non-commissioned officers and men discharged in consequence of injuries received in the performance of military duty will be eligible for pensions under the Pay Warrant at the rates laid down in like circumstances for soldiers of the same rank in the Regular Forces.

In the event of death within 7 years as the result of injuries so received, pensions and compassionate allowances may similarly be awarded to the widow and children of a non-commissioned officer or man.

7. Clothing and necessities.—Uniform (Service dress) of Royal Flying Corps pattern will be worn, clothing and necessities being provided free.

8. Transfer.—Non-commissioned officers and men will not be allowed to transfer to any other branch of the Special Reserve during their term of service in the Royal Flying Corps (Military Wing).

9. Recruiting and rewards to recruiters.—Recruiting will be opened in such recruiting areas as may from time to time be notified from the War Office.

All recommendations for enlistment will be made prior to attestation on Army Form B 203 to the Officer Commanding Royal Flying Corps (Military Wing), South Farnborough, accompanied by certificates of past and present trade qualifications, supplemented by the recruiting officer with any information he may be able to furnish concerning the candidate's general suitabilities. Final approval will be carried out by the Officer Commanding Royal Flying Corps (Military Wing), after the recruit has joined for annual training.

The rewards payable to recruiters or recruiting agents will be at the same rates and given under the same conditions as are in force for the Special Reserve.

10. Purchase of discharge.—The payment for purchase of discharge will be 6l., in lieu of the amount laid down in the Special Reserve Regulations.

A.O. 191. * Territorial Force Bounties—Special conditions
 1914. applicable to Recruits attending Camp for 15 days in 1914.

Drills before Camp.

In view of the short period allowed for the performance of recruit drills, between the date of issue of Special Army Order of 8th April, 1914, and the dates of trainings of the Territorial Force, the Army Council have decided to relax, for 1914 only, the condition that recruits must, before going to camp, perform the full number of drills required in the first year of their service.

For 1914 it will suffice, therefore, as a condition of earning the bounty, if they have completed the drills which recruits are required by Appendix VII. of the Territorial Force Regulations to perform before camp.
